

JACK PETCHEY ACHIEVEMENT AWARD RECORD CHART YEAR 2007
YOUTH ORGANISATIONS – JANUARY TO DECEMBER

January
February
March	DANIEL	14	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - 100% Attendance record in all his sessions - Responded well and worked incredibly hard on all challenges set - His confidence and communication skills have increased substantially - He expresses himself very well through the creative work he does - For contributing in every session and interacting well with his tutor 	a brand new DVD Projector for work on our animation project “citizenship troopers” working with schools in London. In addition we will screen young peoples work, including Daniels who has a great interest in films.
April
May
June	CHARLENE	15	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - For giving 100% in every session and completing not just the work set by her tutor but she also does extra, outside of lesson time - She has an excellent attitude to work and always does the absolute best she can - For thinking positively about education and always being cheerful - For growing in confidence and meeting all the challenges set 	3 tutor training days which will enable tutors to discuss further ways of engaging with students as well as compare lesson plans and reports. It will also enable us to have trained and experienced professionals to speak at the training days which will help the tutors broaden their educational knowledge.
July
August
September	ARCHIE	13	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - For working hard in all of his tuition sessions and relishing new challenges - He is enthusiastic and has an excellent attitude to work - His confidence has notably increased - He interacts very well with the tutor and always acts in a positive manner 	Half way to a new laptop. This will help us to train young people in music and film production. It will also enable students to come to the office and take computerised literacy and numeracy tests which will help us build a student progression database.
October
November
December	TAMERA	10	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - She is a highly spirited and enthusiastic student and does not dwell on the negative experiences she has clearly faced being different to many other young people. - She has the ongoing strain of being in a wheelchair and excluded from mainstream life in many ways that seems very sad for a lively, bright and pretty nine year old girl. She has not adopted a self indulgent or negative way about her, both her attitude to life, people, herself and the world is positive, rich, enthusiastic and playful 	DUAL RACK/ DOUBLE CD PLAYER This would enable us to be able to tutor young people in the art of CD mixing. To broaden the DJing experience for young people To provide music for our creative events.